Theresa Whitehill, born in Sacramento in 1957, studied at uc Santa Cruz and Mills College in the 1970s and early 80s. Since 1984, she has lived in Mendocino County in northern California, where she is well-known to local poetry audiences. In 2009, she was selected to serve as Poet Laureate for the city of Ukiah, a two-year term. Her letterpress broadsides, many of which she creates with her husband and partner, artist Paulo Ferreira, are in the collections of libraries and universities across the us, including the John Hay Library of Brown University, and the Bancroft Library of uc Berkeley.
